For detailed information, see: https://www.asyl.net/fileadmin/user_upload/publikationen/Arbeitshilfen/BroschuereBildung2016fin.pdf.

A detailed list of admission requirements can be found here: https://www.lrakn.de/site/lrakn-microsite/get/params_E52341060/2760584/%C3%9Cbersicht%20Sprachkurse%20Landkreis%20Konstanz.pdf

Compulsory school attendance until the age of 16 (Baden-Württemberg) and/or compulsory vocational school attendance until the age of 18 after 6 months of residency in Germany. If funding is not available Section 26(3)(3) of the AufenthG [German Residence Act].

For information on the Niederlassungserlaubnis for holders of other types of residence permits, please see https://www.bamf.de/DE/Themen/MigrationAufenthalt/ZuwandererDrittstaaten/ festigung-1.pdf. For information on the Niederlassungserlaubnis for holders of other types of residence permits, please see https://www.bamf.de/DE/Themen/MigrationAufenthalt/ZuwandererDrittstaaten/ festigung-1.pdf.

You can find detailed subsections in the text or create a table of contents in the document.

The brochure is mainly intended for refugees, volunteers, teachers and employers.
Applicants for asylum / refugees

Persons entitled to asylum / refugees often receive a Duldung (temporary postponement of deportation) pending the asylum decision, which is extended for 3 – 6 months, for at least 1 year, if the country cannot, may not or should not be enforced, Section 60a of the German Residence Act.

Vocational training and university studies

If a residence permit is granted for vocational training or employment, a residence permit may be issued for at least 1 year, with special conditions of employment, and may be extended.

- Persons entitled to subsidiary protection: may receive a residence permit for at least 1 year for vocational training.
- Persons entitled to asylum / refugees: a residence permit for at least 1 year for vocational training is possible.

Work

Entitlement or obligation to participate in an integration course (without German language skills, for teenagers or for adults) possible:

- If the applicant is unable to participate due to their situation: participation in an integration course at school, vocational school or pre-qualification year for work and occupation possible. The duration of the vocational work training can be extended due to the integration training (Section 44(4)(2)(2) of the German Residence Act).

Travel

Application for revocation or modification of the Wohnsitzauflage (residence requirement) in cases listed under Section 12a(5) of the German Residence Act.

- Application for revocation or modification of the Wohnsitzauflage for family members, Section 12a(1) of the German Residence Act.
- Subject to social security contributions, vocational training or university studies – in which case no residence requirement for family members within Baden-Württemberg (Exception: employment outside of Baden-Württemberg).

Social benefits

Benefits according to SGB II (II of the German Social Welfare Code):

- For adults: duration of up to three months.
- For children: duration of up to one month.