

Rules for music and art in the streets of the city of Konstanz

Street musicians and street artists can make cities livelier, friendlier and more colorful. However, the performances should not only be enjoyed by passers-by, but also by local residents and by the people who work in the city center.

This is why we ask you to stick to the following rules:

Street music

1. In the pedestrian zone in downtown Konstanz you are allowed to make music at the following locations:

Wessenbergstraße • Obermarkt • Hussenstraße • Augustinerplatz • Rosgartenstraße • Marktstätte • Stadtgarten.

2. Please note that whenever these locations are occupied by special events, you are not allowed to make music there.

3. Shortly before the performance start you have to register with your signature to the list. The list did you get along with the permission. If you get into a control during your presentation and have not registered into the list, your presentation is not allowed. Only the persons who are registered in the permission are allowed to make music.

4. It's possible to make music from 10:00 – 13:00 hrs and from 14:00 – 20:00 hrs. You are allowed to make music at every hour on the hour for a maximum of half an hour (for instance from 11:00 – 11:30 hrs, from 12:00 – 12:30 hrs).

5. After every break you need move at least 150 meters to a different location. It is not allowed to use the last place again.

6. On Sundays and holidays the permission does not apply.

7. It is not allowed to perform with loud or disturbing musical instruments. Amplifiers and sound transmission equipment are not allowed.

8. Groups of musicians of more than 2 people are not allowed.

9. Sale of CDs is only allowed:

- if you sell your own music. The title of the CD have to be registered in the permission
- if no constructions are used as, for example, small shelves.

Street art / street painting

The same rules 1 - 4 as street musicians.

5. After one hour you need move at least 150 meters to a different location.

6. You can only sell your locally-made works. A commercial sale is not allowed.

Please note that the police are authorized to intervene in cases of failure to comply with these rules. The police may order the performer(s) to stop performing at that location for reasons of road safety or to prevent public disturbances.

Thank you for your cooperation!
